"SCRIPTUM" - artist's books, visual poetry, assemic
writing and respective derivatives
TERRA-BOA Terapia e Atelier
Porto, Portugal

international collective exhibition on the iconography of the written word in its decomposition

ABOUT

Artist Books are artistic objects that use the book format or the concept of the book itself at its core.

At this international collective exhibition, we do present several works of this genre, which proliferated in the very contemporary XX century, together with its congeners Visual Poetry, Assemic Writing among some other derivatives. Here, we do exalt the graphic conceptual representation of the “word” and the “word” abstraction. With this show you’ll relearn what you’ve considered the book object to be and your present notion of the written word.

This is an on-tour exhibition curated by the artist Monsenhor enVide neFelibata that held artwork by several handpicked national and international artists.

The artwork is shown at exhibitions that will tour through Portuguese Museums, Galleries, Libraries and some unconventional places. At each exhibition, a workshop will be presented by Monsenhor enVide neFelibata or a local selected artist. During this workshop we’ll present some of the technics that have been used by artists for a long time as well as explore uncommon materials.

At the moment the collection counts with 65 works from 24 artists from 9 different countries.

My way of thinking urban art should be created for an rather heterogeneous and matter multiple readings perceived. Consequently, the artwork must contain different layers for these wide audiences. Sometimes even ones are and contradictory worked on top of each other. That is the beauty within, the deepness of it.
I'm not implying that urban art should be somewhat hermetic nor easily understandable. I'm affirming that is must lead to a dialogue between artist and viewer and between viewers themselves.
